RE: 2003 UBR for "B.C. BAKERO CONSTRUCTION, INC."

Dear Department of State:

My name is Maria Baquero and I am the registered agent for the above mentioned Corporation. We filed our Uniform Business Report timely with the State for 2002. I sent in a change of address sometime after this event and it was never acknowledge by the State, therefore I never received my 2003 UBR. My new accountant asked me if I received my post card for the 2004 UBR. I indicated I did not receive the post card and he immediately reviewed my account on-line and determined that my Company was administratively dissolved in September 2003. We apologize for not knowing to send this money and have completed the form our accountant gave us from your on-line service. We never received this form and would never want to be late in filing the State required form. We are respectfully requesting that you accept our $150.00 plus our signed UBR for tax year 2003. Again, please understand that we would have paid the $150.00 prior to May 1, 2003 if we had received our form in the mail. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Maria Baquero, President
