business or transaction capable of being conducted, so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Corporation.

2. To acquire and pay for, in cash or otherwise, stocks and bonds of the Corporation, the goodwill, rights, assets, and property, and to undertake or assume the whole or any part of the obligation or liabilities of any person, firm, association, or corporation.

3. To acquire, hold, use, sell, assign, lease, grant licenses and privileges, inventions, improvements, and processes, copyrights, trademarks, and trade names, relating to or useful in connection with any business of the Corporation.

4. To guarantee, purchase, hold, vote, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of shares of the capital stock of or any bonds, securities, or evidence of indebtedness created by any other corporation or corporations organized under the laws of this state or any other state, country, nation, or government, and while the owner thereof to exercise all the rights, powers, and privileges of ownership.

5. To issue bonds, debentures, or obligations of the Corporation from time to time, for any of the objects or purposes of the Corporation, and to secure the same by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or otherwise.

6. To purchase, hold, sell, and transfer the shares of its own capital stocks; PROVIDED, it shall not use its funds or property for the purchase of its own shares of capital stock when such use would cause any impairment of its capital; and, PROVIDED FURTHER, that shares of its own capital stock belonging to it shall not be voted upon, directly, or indirectly.

7. To have one or more offices to carry on all or any of its operations and business, and without restrictions or limit as to amount, to purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, own, mortgage, sell, convey, or otherwise dispose of real and personal property of every class and description in any of the states, districts, territories, or colonies of the United States or other country.

8. In general, to carry on any other business in connection with the foregoing, whether manufacturing or otherwise, and to have and exercise all the powers conferred by the laws of Florida upon corporations, and to do any or all of the things above set forth to the same extent as natural persons might or could do.

9. To transact any or all-lawful business.

10. The foregoing clauses shall be construed both as objects and powers, and it is hereby expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of specific powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the powers of the Corporation.

11. The above and foregoing businesses enumerated are intended as illustrative and not restrictive, and the Corporation shall have the power to handle such other business or businesses, either in its own behalf or as agent or broker for others, and shall further engage in any or all like or kindred businesses that may be necessary or profitable in conjunction with the businesses above enumerated; and generally shall have and exercise all powers, privileges, and immunities of businesses of like kind and nature incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida, and shall enjoy the privileges and immunities pertaining to incorporators under the laws of the State of Florida.
