2002 Uniform Business Report

Dear Mr. Toner:

Enclosed please find the 2002 Uniform Business Report for the above corporation. Due to the fact that this is the very first Uniform Business Report that we have to file and also because of my insufficient English, the report was not filed in time by May 01, 2002.

On October 21, 2002 we mailed you the application for reinstatement with a check in the amount of $150.00 without a clear understanding that the fee for reinstatement was really $750.00. This letter is written requesting that you grant us a waiver of the reinstatement fee and treat our corporation as though our corporation were continuously active. Considering that we are a small business in the very first year of operations plus the fact that we do not possess sufficient English, we believe that you would grant us a waiver of late filing fee as well as reinstatement fee. Since the $150.00 has been retained by you, please credit it toward our regular filing fee.

We are looking forward to your approval and reply.

Thank you for your kind consideration

Sincerely yours,

Khanh Q. VO
President
