Dear Madame Secretary,

We did not receive the Uniform Business Report renewal form until a few weeks ago, in mid-July. Noticing the file by September notice on the front, we anticipated filing the report at that time. Our accountant was logging it in preparation for payment and brought to our attention that the fee was not the usual $150.00 rather $550.00. This letter is in response to the telephone conversation with your office regarding the renewal fee, indicating that we should send the normal fee as well as relating the circumstances. Should this be acceptable, enclosed please find a check for $150.00 to cover the cost of filing for 2002. Otherwise, kindly return the check and we will dissolve the corporation.

Very Truly Yours,

Alex Mederos
President

Dear Sir,

Enclosed is a Uniform Business Report renewal form and a check for $150.00. We sent the same renewal last year and the check was returned to us indicating that the fee was paid. Again this year our accountant reminded us to pay the fee before May ast but we could not find the form; in fact we hadn't received. I related this with your office last week and was informed to send a check with an explanation. Please note that the address has changed. Also enclosed is a copy of the returned letter from last year.

Very Truly Yours,

Alex Mederos
President
