Dear Sir or Madam,

This letter is regarding the phone conversation that I had with someone in your department in June. Regarding the Uniform Business Report. I spoke to that person and informed them that I received the Report Form late. Because the form was put into the wrong mail box, and I received it at a later date from my neighbor. The person that I spoke to, told me to send the signed form and a check for the amount of $150.00. Which I did do. I recently recieved another notice indicating that I now owe a $400.00 late fee. It was not my fault that the form was not put into the correct mail box. And I was not aware that I had to pay the $150.00 by April 31st. Being that this is a new company that was opened last year, and this is the first time that we recieved this Report Form. Now that we know that we have to pay $150.00 before April 31st, a check will be sent before this date. Regardless if we recieve a Report Form or not. We hope that the $400.00 late fee will be waived, and we will recieve the check back. Because as I said before, it was not my fault! Hope to hear from you soon regarding this matter.

Thanking you in advance,

Niteja Tajdharry
