Re: Joy Place, Inc.
FEIN: 65-1089115

Dear Sir or Madam:

Joy Place, Inc. is a group-home for physically challenged individuals. This is the first time I have been in charge of a corporation as a corporate officer. I have sought assistance from my former accountant to file necessary forms timely at the start of this venture. Unfortunately, the accountant became ill and suffered a heart attack and has not been able to handle the corporation's compliance matters.

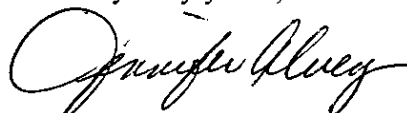

I received a notice to file the annual report with the fee of $550. Although I tried to get assistance from my prior ill accountant, he could not answer my calls. With the notice of the annual report due by September 13, 2002, I learned the prior notice was never addressed by my former accountant.

Providing a home to the physically challenged, Joy Place is a welcome venture to my county and state. Please be advised that there was no intentional disregard of the law or rules. Paying this penalty will create a financial hardship since my budget is limited. Together with my unforeseen accountant's illness as well as my inexperience in corporation matters, I respectfully request the late penalty be abated.

I now have the assistance from a professional accounting group and will not have future compliance problems.

If you require additional information or have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me.

Very truly yours,

Jennifer Alvey, President
