Was Put in our Box opened. It had originally been put in another Box and that person went on Vacation and when they got back they decided to Put it in the box it was addressed to! Too Bad the check was no good and was already canceled also last month our Bank statement went to someone else who opened it then put it in our box! My Dad tried to send me the original copy of a poem I wrote him in 1974. He Mailed it from Vermont on July 29th. It was Put in the wrong box and Yesterday it was in my Box opened and the envelope said Please deliver to the right address.... Thank God that person was a good person. So we are sending you this $400.00 under Protest. We don't feel we should be forced to pay it. It was NOT our fault. We never got your first letter, it happens constantly! We Recover missing children here and do a lot of free searches for our community. $400.00 is a lot of money to us. - Sincerely,

Aug 19, 2003

Hello,

We did not receive the first notice of corp. renewal from your office. I wrote you a letter explaining that when we sent you the check for $150.00 you didn't answer the objection. We had to paying the extra $400.00 for a late fee. You just sent us a letter saying pay it.

Then I called your office and was told that you did not get the original corp renewal notice that you sent us that we never received back in the mail as un-deliverable. We never got it. Next year we'll just send you the money even if we don't get it, we'll just send you the $150.00 next Jan 1st to avoid this huge problem. We have had constant problems with our mail delivery. It gets put in the wrong box all the time. Last week ^{when} we were waiting for a big check from a client. It was put in the wrong box and after 3 of the client saying they sent it, finally we told her to cancel the check and then lost it.
