To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to respectfully request that the penalties associated with the dissolution of our corporation be abated. We are a very small corporation and it has recently been made my responsibility to maintain the corporation's books and deal with the corporation's official business. Unfortunately, the annual report was not a routine item and was unintentionally overlooked. We have made the necessary arrangements to ensure the report will be filed timely in the future. We have always paid our fees in a timely manner in the past and have had no intention to dissolve.

We would like to reinstate our corporation, however payment of these penalties will produce a heavy financial burden.

If additional information is needed, please feel free to call. Thank you for considering our request.

Sincerely,

Barbara G Sansom

Barbara G. Sansom, Secretary/Treasurer
