Mr. Andy Dunlap:

Enclosed is a check for $400.00, which is the penalty assessed us for returning our $150.00 corporate tax three weeks late. This seems to us to be an excessive penalty. We are a very small business barely making ends meet. We are basically a mom and pop operation. We have been in business for just over two years, and are still learning about the process of accounting. We had to change accountants during the past year and there has been some confusion in the process. It is very distressing to try to do business in this state when an oversight is so costly. There should be some recourse from this matter that can give us some relief on this issue. People who commit crimes get lesser fines. We were not trying to evade paying the tax, but simply did not receive the information in time to make the payment. As soon as we became aware of the oversight, the payment was sent. Please try to help us out of this situation. Certainly, I hope the state of Florida does not want to drive us out of business. Everyone makes mistakes, and we have been frustrated trying to resolve this matter trying to find someone in Tallassee with a little compassion. Hopefully a just compromise can be reached, and a fair adjustment can be made.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Torelli

Mr. Dunlap: In response to your question as to when our UBR was received, it was June 20, 03. We sent the check out the next day. Thank you for consideration for a waiver of this penalty. Letter No. 003A00046925. We may be reached at 850 455 6133.
