ARTICLE VIII

Shareholders

A. The stock of the corporation may be issued, owned and registered only in the name or names of individuals who are attorneys duly authorized and licensed to practice law in the State of Florida. In the event that a shareholder:

(i) becomes disqualified to practice law in this state; or

(ii) sells, transfers, hypothecates or pledges, or attempts to sell, transfer, hypothecate or pledge any shares of stock in this corporation to any person ineligible by law or by virtue of these Articles to be a shareholder in this corporation, or if such sale, transfer, hypothecation or pledge, or attempt to sell, transfer, hypothecate or pledge is made in a manner inconsistent with the provisions of these Articles or by the by-laws of this corporation; or

(iii) Suffers an execution to be levied upon his stock, or such stock is subjected to sale and other process, the effect of which is to vest any legal or equitable interest in such stock in some person ineligible by law or by virtue of these Articles to be a shareholder in this corporation, then the stock of such shareholder shall immediately stand forfeited and such stock shall be immediately cancelled by this corporation and the shareholder or the other person in possession of such stock shall be entitled only to receive payment for the value of such stock which, in the absence of a by-law provision or written agreement among its shareholders, shall be the book value thereof as of the last day of the month preceding the month in which any of the events above enumerated occurs. The shareholder whose stock so becomes forfeited and cancelled by the corporation shall forthwith cease to be a shareholder and shall accept payment for his stock in accordance with the foregoing, and after payment of any other sums then lawfully due and owing to said shareholder by the corporation, such shareholder shall then and thereafter have no further financial interest of any kind in the corporation.

B. No shareholder of this corporation may sell or transfer any of his shares of stock in this corporation except to another individual who is then an attorney duly authorized and licensed to practice law in the State of Florida. No shareholder of this corporation may enter into a voting trust agreement or any other type of agreement vesting another person with the authority to exercise the voting power of any or all of his stock.

C. The corporation's board of directors is specifically authorized from time to time to adopt by-laws, not inconsistent herewith, restraining the alienation of shares of stock of this corporation and providing for the purchase or redemption by the corporation of its shares of stock.

ARTICLE IX

Indemnification

The corporation shall indemnify each director, officer and shareholder of the corporation against any and all liability and expenses incurred by him in connection with or arising out of any action, suit, or proceeding in which he may be involved, by reason of his being or having been an officer, director or shareholder of the corporation to the full extent permitted by the laws of the State of Florida.

Executed by the undersigned on the 6th day of March, 2001.

DAVID M. TARLOW
Incorporator

Acknowledgment of Appointment by Registered Agent

Having been named the registered agent for the above corporation at the place designated in the foregoing Articles of Incorporation, I hereby accept the same and agree to act in this capacity, and agree to comply with the provisions of Florida law relative to keeping the registered office open.
