Dear Sir/Ms:

Please be advised that on July 10, 2002 our office did correspond with the office in Tallahassee regarding the above mentioned Corporation. During this conversation we had explained why this Annual Uniform Business Report was delinquent. We had requested a correction to the Principal Address at which time that was completed.

Due to the fact that the Annual Report was not received in an adequate time to file, we prepared the return and mailed it with the payment attached ($150.00). Please note that after discussing this situation the representative took into consideration this problem and waived the Late Fee and instructed us to file it immediately.

We were instructed to put this in writing since the first conversation regarding this was discussed over the telephone on July 10, 2002. With receiving this current correspondence it reflects an entirely different calculation to this problem. We hope that special consideration will be given considering the manner in which this was handled.

Respectfully,

Papak & Associates,
Accountant For
K. Christensen, Inc.
