Dear Sir/Madam:

Enclosed please find my "2004 for Profit Corporation Annual Report" along with my check for $150.00. Please process my application accordingly.

I was confused when I received this "Notice of Intent to Dissolve". This is the first notice I received. My accountant told me that I should have received the original notice at the beginning of the year, but I do not recall receiving any other correspondence other than this notice. There has recently been a change in ownership which may have contributed to this misunderstanding.

I would appreciate you accepting this "2004 for Profit Corporate Annual Report" as timely filed. I will make every effort to file timely in the future.

Sincerely,

Theresa M. Kornacki
