Dear sirs,

I recently received a re-instatement notice. This was the first notice I've received. So I was completely caught off guard. I am a first time corporation owner, and am somewhat clueless as to the rules & regulations. For this I apologize, & am hopeful you will accept this check & apology, instead of forcing me to do a re-instatement file & fee. I have had similar mis-haps with my mail. I hope you will accept my check & apology, along with changing my address. I truly hope to be more diligent & aware in the future. Again I apologize for this misfortunate error. Should you have any questions, feel free to contact me at the above number.
