To Whom It May Concern:

Subject: Corporation Reinstatement

On April 2, 2001 I formed a corporation called Paramount Cleaning Services, Inc., document # P01000034391. Between the incorporation date and today I have not done anything with the business and have not paid any attention to it. As a result of recently being laid-off, my wife and I decided to pursue the business. After checking the papers on the business I discovered that the business is in an inactive status. I called the Division of Corporations and learned that I was supposed to file an annual report and pay an annual report fee and corporate supplemental fee. I was also told that paperwork should have been mailed to me. Based on the fact that I never received any paperwork in the mail, I am requesting to have the reinstatement fee waived and that you accept the $300.00 of back due fees that I owe along with the $8.75 for a Certificate of Status to reinstate my corporation.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

William Bigney
