To whom it may concern:

I received the packet for my yearly Uniform Business Report and it said that I owed $550. I got to talking to another business owner and he said that it should only be $150 and that I should have sent it in already. So what I am assuming is that I never got the first packet with the $150 price. I only received the late fee notice packet for $550. What I am asking is for some consideration and that I be allowed to pay $150 since I never received the packet and that I am naive to the fact that it must be done every year before May. This is a one time thing. I learned that it was due before May when I called your 800 number. The gentleman I spoke with suggested that I do it online next year before May. He is the one who suggested that I send in this letter. All I ask is for a break this time. I will be sure to send it on time next year since I am no longer naive to when it is due, even if I don't receive it in the mail. Thank you,
