To whom it may concern,

I am sending in my UBR with this letter. I spoke with one of your representatives over the phone and she instructed me to send it in with this letter explaining why it is being submitted after the deadline. I never received the UBR in the mail. I have not moved. If I hadn't spoken to your representative about another topic, I would not have known that I needed to submit the UBR at all. I have downloaded the form from your website. I apologize for the late receipt of this form however as I stated above, I never received it in the mail.

Thank You,

Lisa Radosta-Huntley
