RE: TAXPAYER: RUBEN E. PERCZEK, PH.D., P.A.
EIN: 65-1090736
DOCUMENT #: PO01000036621, APPLICATION FOR REINSTATEMENT

Dear Madam/Sir:

As the accountants for the above-referenced taxpayer, we have been requested to forward you the enclosed Application for Reinstatement.

Enclosed is a check in the amount of $150.

On behalf of the above-referenced taxpayer, we respectfully request consideration for the abatement of any penalties/additional fees that may be required for reinstatement. Ruben E. Perczek, the president of the company has indicated that he never received any correspondence (the annual report) or any notices thereafter showing that the corporation was delinquent in its filing requirements with the Department of State. Part of the problem is that the documents may have been sent to 199 Ocean Lane Drive in Key Biscayne, Florida which is reflected as the mailing address on the return. This was technically incorrect as this address is his home address and the principal involved (Ruben E. Perczek) did not officially move into this residence until the beginning of October 2003.

For future correspondence, the 199 Ocean Lane Drive address is the correct address. However, no prior correspondences sent to this address were ever received by the corporation.

Based upon the above, we respectfully request that you process the reinstatement application and consider waiver of the additional fees/penalties that have been assessed.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
TUBBS & BARTNICK, P.A.

Zoltan Stein, CPA
