To Whom It May Concern:,

I am submitting the original $150 for each company, Forest Edge Ranch and S&J Organic Wheatgrass N' Sprouts. This was our first renewal and we were unaware that a yearly fee was required. We were told over the phone that we should have been sent these same forms earlier this year, but we never received them. We were having a lot of trouble with lost and misplaced mail out here for several months, so I am assuming they were lost since we never received them. S&J's and Forest Edge are small, new, struggling businesses, and we are barely keeping our heads above water. It would be a tremendous hardship on us to have to pay out the $800 in late fees. At this point we would probably have to dissolve either one of the corporations or both due to our present financial circumstances. We would greatly appreciate it and would be eternally grateful if you would waive the late fee for this year. We will make sure this never happens again now that we're aware of this. Thank you so much.

Sincerely yours,

Sietske Cath Tyte, President of
S&J's Organic Wheatgrass 'N
Sprouts and Forest Edge Ranch
