The personal liability of each common shareholder shall be limited to the sum of the par value of the number of shares owned, to the extent that such shares have been fully paid up.

ARTICLE VII - PURPOSES

The purposes for which the corporation is established are:

1. To manufacture, buy, sell, exchange, repair, let out on hire, import, export and deal in textile fashion of all kind, leather goods, household goods of all kinds, furniture and furnishings, jewelry, electronics, utensils, articles of use or ornament, fancy goods, tools, implements, materials, merchandise and accessories of all kinds, which can be conveniently dealt with by the corporation and to act either as principals or agents in or about the corporations business or for any of the above purposes.
2. To undertake and carry on any other legal Trade or business whatsoever which can, in the opinion of the corporation, be advantageously or conveniently carried on by the company by way of extension or in connection with any business which the corporation is authorized to carry on or is calculated directly or indirectly to develop any branch of the corporation's business or to increase the value of any of the corporation's assets, property or rights.
3. To acquire and take over the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or persons, firm or corporation, carrying on any business which this corporation is authorized to carry on, or possessed of any property or rights suitable for the purpose of this corporation.
4. To acquire, hold, sell and mortgage the shares, stock, bonds, debentures, or securities of or in any other company or body (whether such shares or securities are fully paid or not) where in so doing may seem desirable in the interests of the corporation.
5. To take on, purchase, lease, hire or otherwise acquire, and if thought fit to sell, exchange, lease or operate real and personal property rights of all kinds, without prejudice to any of the foregoing, including lands, buildings, concessions, copyrights, inventions, trademarks, patents, licenses, contracts, machinery, stations, agencies and business concerns and undertakings.
6. To apply for and take out, purchase or otherwise acquire any trade marks designs, patterns, patents, patent rights, inventions, or secret processes, which may be useful for the corporations objectives, and to grant licenses to use the same.
7. To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint venture or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transactions which this corporation is authorized to carry on or engage in, so as to directly or indirectly benefit this corporation, and to lend money to guarantee the contracts of or otherwise assist, any such person or company.

8. To amalgamate or merge with any other company or companies.
9. To enter into any arrangements with any government, or municipality, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the company's objectives and to obtain from any such authorities, any rights, privileges, and concessions which the corporation may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concession.
10. To borrow, or raise or secure the payment of money by mortgage or by the issue of debenture stock, or in such manner as the cooperation shall think fit, and for the purpose aforesaid or for any other lawful purpose; to charge all or any of the company's property or assets, present and future.
11. To invest, lend, or otherwise deal with unemployment monies, in such manner, and upon such terms as may be thought fit, and to vary investments.
12. To receive loans at interest from and to give credit or lend money to, any person or company, where so doing may further the interest of the corporation.
13. To subscribe for, take, acquire and hold, sell or exchange, bonds, stocks, obligations or securities of any government authority or company.
14. To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants debentures and other negotiable, transferable, or mercantile instrument.
15. Upon any issue of shares, debentures or other securities of the company, to employ brokers, commission agents, underwriters and other persons, and to provide for the remuneration for such persons for their services by payment in cash, or by the issue of shares, debentures or other securities of the company, or by the granting of options to take the same or in any other manner allowed by law.
16. To pay any person, firm or company for services rendered or to be rendered to this company, either by cash payment or by the allotment to them by shares or securities of the corporation.
17. To establish and support or aid in the setup of associations, institutions, clubs, funds, trusts and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees or directors or ex-directors of the corporation and to grant money, pensions, and charitable aid and donations, to any charitable organization, exhibition or purpose.

18. To carry on all or any of the business of producers, distributors, importers, exporters, buyers, sellers, consultants and or dealers in the production and distribution of products using the internet or electronic commerce.
19. To pay for any property or rights acquired by the company either in cash or fully or partly paid shares or by the issue of securities, or by combination of both, and generally on such terms as may be determined.
20. To insure with any company or person against losses, risks or liability which might affect this corporation and insure the lives of any of the directors or servants or agents of the corporation.
21. To sell or dispose of the undertakings, property and assets of the company or any part thereof in such manner and for such consideration as the corporation may think fit and in particular for shares fully or partly paid up, debentures, or other securities of any other company.
22. To distribute a dividend to the shareholders upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors in general meeting.
23. To procure the corporation to be incorporated, registered or recognized in any other state or abroad or place, and to exercise any of the objects or powers aforesaid in any part of the world.
24. To distribute among the shareholders any assets of the corporation, but so that such distribution would not amount to an unlawful reduction of capital as prescribed by law.
25. To engage in the construction, repair and remodeling of building and public works of all kinds, and for the improvement of real estate, and the doing of any other business and contracting work incidental to or connected with such work, including demolition.
26. To provide transportation services in the form of scheduling, arranging and booking of airlines, ship cruises, shuttle and limousine service for charter or tours.
27. To do all or any of the matters hereby authorize in any part of the world, either alone or in conjunction with or as factors, trustees or agents for, other persons or companies.

28. To do all such things as are incidental or the corporation may think conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.
29. To engage in any purpose authorized by chapter 601, Florida Statue, including, not limited to the powers in sections 607.0372 and 607.0303.

And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this article, the objects set forth in any sub-article shall not, except when the context expressly so require, be in any wise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other sub-article. The corporation shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this article.
