ARTICLE FIFTEEN

All share of stock in the Corporation are assignable, and any stockholder may sell, assign and transfer his or her shares and certificate(s) of stock at pleasure, provided however, that he or she must first offer his or her stock for sale to the remaining stockholders, it being the intention hereof to give them the preference in the purchase of said shares, and any attempted sale in violation of this provision shall be null and void.

The stockholders desiring to sell his or her stock shall file notice in writing of his or her intention to do so with the Secretary of the Corporation, stating the terms of the sale, and unless his or her terms are accepted by any or all of the stockholders within ten (10) days thereafter, they shall be deemed to have waived their privilege of purchasing and he or she shall be at liberty to sell to anyone else upon those terms.

In event the said stockholder shall at any time in the future desire to sell his or her stock upon less favorable terms to himself or herself that those contained in the foregoing notice, he or she shall be required to file a new notice as aforesaid stating the new terms which must be accepted within ten (10) days thereafter, however, if there is a failure to exercise said option to purchase, the stockholder may sell at more favorable terms to himself.

It is further a condition of the transfer of any of the stock of this Corporation to any person other than the Corporation, to be held as treasury stock, that all debts and obligations of said stockholders to the Corporation shall have been paid in advance of said transfer, once of said transfer, obligations of said stockholders to the Corporation shall have been paid in advance of said transfer.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS EXECUTED THESE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION THIS 8th DAY OF APRIL 2001

ARTICLE FOURTEEN

(a). The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as director, officer, employee, or agent of another Corporation, Partnership, Joint Venture, Trust, or other enterprises, against expenses (including attorney's fees and costs), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he or she acted in good faith or in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Any indemnification hereunder shall be made only on a determination by a majority of disinterested Directors (subject to approval by a majority of stockholders) that indemnification is proper in the particular circumstances.

Determination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the party did not meet the applicable standard of conduct. Indemnification hereunder may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of any action, suit, or proceeding, on a preliminary determination that the Director, officer, employee or agent met the applicable standard of conduct and on receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Director, officer, employee, or agent to repay such amount, unless it is ultimately determined that he or she is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this election.

(b). The Corporation shall also indemnify any Director, officer, employee, or agent who has been successful on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, against all expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, actually and reasonable incurred by him or her in connection therewith without the necessity of an independent determination that such Director, officer, employee, or agent met any appropriate standard of conduct.

(c). The indemnification provided for herein, shall continue as to any person who has ceased to be a Director, officer, employee, or agent, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

(d). In addition to the indemnification provided for herein, the Corporation shall have power to make any other or further indemnification, except in indemnification against gross negligence or willful misconduct, under any resolution or agreement duly adopted by a majority of disinterested Directors, or duly authorized by a majority of stockholders.

ARTICLE NINE

The Bylaws of this Corporation may be created, amended, changed or replaced by either the stockholders or the Directors of the Corporation at any duly scheduled Special Meeting called for that purpose.

ARTICLE TEN

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the stockholders and approved at a stockholder's meeting by at least a majority of the stock entitled to vote, unless all of the directors and all of the stockholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

If all the Directors severally or collectively consent in writing to any action taken or to be taken by the Corporation, and the writing evidencing their consent are filed with the Secretary of the Corporation, the action shall be as valid as though it had been authorized at the meeting of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE TWELVE

The Corporation may hold its meetings of stockholders and/or Directors, either within or without the State of Florida.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN

When any written agreement is made between stockholders of the Corporation, which involves the interest of the Corporation, such agreement shall be binding upon the Corporation provided a copy of the same shall be filed with the corporate minutes. Thereafter said agreement shall be recognized and observed by the Officers, Directors and Agents of the Corporation.

Agreements between stockholders shall continue binding upon the Corporation until there is filed with the President and Secretary of the Corporation, in duplicate, a written instrument, signed by the persons who originally created such stockholder's agreement (or their successors in ownership, providing such succession shall have been accomplished in accordance with the terms of the stockholder's agreements) consenting to the revocation and cancellations of the agreements among the stockholders.
