Division of Corporations

I filed for a new corporation this year under the advice of my accountant to become an S corp from a C corp.

I had contacted the IRS. to inquire why I had not received my new EIN number, they had informed me that your department had already changed my status to an S corp.

I had not been notified by the Division of Corporations that this was changed in May of 2001.

Due to circumstances created by not being notified of these changes and under the advice of persons from the Division of Corporations. I was told to write and send this letter with the original filing fee of $150.00 and a copy of my response from the IRS.

Because there is no need for the new corporation, please accept this letter and my fee to continue the original corporation. Because this was caused by reasons out of my control,

Thank you James W Wood
