Re: Application for Reinstatement

Date: 11/13/02

Dear Sirs or Madams,

I apologize for not filing an annual report. The reason is that this has been the first year of my corporation's existence, and I was unfamiliar with this requirement.

I received your Notice of Revocation more than a week ago, and I was very distressed to learn about the steep fee for reinstatement. I hope would consider waving the $ 600 fee, as I did not receive the previous UBR notices that your letter talks about. This is probably due to a mix up in the mail because of the fact that I have been in the process of moving to my present business address.

My old address was:

108 SW 5th Avenue
Gainesville, FL 32601

My new address is:

211 SW 4th Avenue, Suite 4-A
Gainesville, FL 32601

I apologize for not sending out a moving notice before, and I hope that you can be lenient in waiving the $ 600 fee, since my business is still struggling to survive and master the requirements of doing business. As a consequence it did not turn a profit during its first year of operation, so a 600-dollar cost would weigh heavily on the budget, especially in view of a recent unrecoverable financial loss due to a theft of equipment that is causing a cash flow problem at present.

I am enclosing, at least, a $ 150.00 payment for the Annual Report Fee and the Corporate Supplemental Fee. Also included is the Application for Reinstatement.

Sincerely Yours,

David Chayes
President, Chaise Design-Build Company
