Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed is a check for thirty-five dollars for the Dissolution of my corporation. Originally when I started the corporation I had plans of doing business, however after September 11th I decided to join the military instead. Being inexperienced with this sort of thing I did not know what was required to end the corporations existence. For the past year and a half I have been too busy to be able to research this till now. Being in the military I do not have the money to obtain legal counsel on thin matter, I hope this will be sufficient to close this corporation. If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to contact me at the above address.

Thank you,
