To Whom It May Concern:

Recently, I applied for a change to my address on account because I had'nt been reliably receiving my mail at the prior address. I had been aware of several instances of the condo management actually opening it and or throwing it away. Upon processing this request I received a notice from your department that my Uniform Business Report had not yet been filed. Enclosed, please find the report in question along with the required $150 fee.

My accountant informed me that I should have filed this report by May 1st to avoid a penalty of $400. However, never having received the original report in January and due to the circumstances that led me to change my address in the first place, she felt that your department would show leniency at collecting this penalty amount.

I have tried to be responsible for all my financial and legal reporting requirements and have responded on a timely basis to all related correspondence I have received. Based on these circumstances, I would appreciate receiving leniency on the final assessment of the $400 penalty that could apply.

Thank you for your consideration. I can be reached at the number above if you should have further questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Besaida Nina
President
