Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing this letter to you with the hope that you will understand my situation and maybe give me a second chance.

I opened this company Limtech Inc. for my wife about a year ago. We were planing to make it into a retail business however, our plans were postponed (we had a new baby and in January my wife had to go through surgery). We really did not do much with the company to date, except to open up a bank account for it. My wife is the one who opens the mail for the company (after all I named it after her) and she places it neatly in a folder. The problem is that I never reviewed the folder until yesterday where I learned about the filing deadline.

I never owned any kind of company or cooperation before and I apologize for my ignorance. It is all very new to me and I honestly did not know that I need to file every year a UBR in order to keep the company active. I understand now that it is necessary to file by May 1 every year as long as the company is in existence.

I am pleading to your good nature to please not charge me the $ 400 penalty this once. I know that the rules should apply to everyone however, I have learned in life that if you show kindness to others you will receive it back twice fold.

I want to thank you for taking the time and reading my letter, and I will really appreciate it if you would accept the attached check for $150.00 as my filing fee.

Thank you in advance,

Guy Elazar
President
