The offices of Scolaro-Castellana Reporting Services, Inc. officially filed our Annual Report on April 21, 2006 via Online. Our company has always filed our Annual Report via regular mail with a check, and chose to try your more convenient method of filing online for the first time this year.

Everything appeared to go through and process correctly. We paid online also. We assumed all was completed. We have now received this "Notice of Intent to Dissolve," and we were VERY CONFUSED as to why. I have spent the last week trying to contact a "person" in your office that can speak with me regarding this issue. I have yet been able to get a live person. Therefore, I am sending this letter along with a "hard copy" of the Annual Report form and a check $150.

I reviewed our statements to see if the charge from State came through and I show nothing yet. So we are concerned that we are now paying twice for our Annual Report, but hope that if you see double payment you will contact us and let us know.

From here forward, our office will only file via hard copy and NOT ONLINE. I have found his method to be very hazardous to our business.

Sincerely,

Rachelle I. Castellana
