To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to explain the oversight which caused our delinquency of filing this report and beg your pardon of the fine.

Recently, we moved and for a short time our mail did not appear to be forwarding properly. It is possible your original mailing may have been during this time.

This is not an excuse, as we are fully aware of this annual item that must be addressed, as you can see that we have filed promptly in the past.

We do not have $550.00 readily available to send and if we did, it would put our business in a great financial budget constraint, as we are trying everything we can to stay afloat as it is.

Please accept our payment of the traditional $150.00 fee and our 2003 Uniform Business Report. I personally assure your office that this will never happen again.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Thomas S. Crum".

Thomas S. Crum
President
