Dear Sirs:-

Please see attached e-mail correspondence from your office.

We attempted to electronically file on-line on April 25, 2002 and according to your office there was a problem.

Per your instructions, here is our check for $150.00 and the completed Second Notice UBR.

Thank you for clearing up this matter in a timely fashion.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey W. Corn
President

Our records indicate that you attempted to file online at www.sunbiz.org on April 25, 2002, however no payment was accepted, therefore the document was not filed. You need to verify with your credit card vendor that you were not charged, as we have no record of payment. If you were not charged, please complete the second notice UBR that you have received and submit it with a check in the amount of $150.00 and a letter stating that you made an attempt to file electronically before the May 1 deadline but were unsuccessful.

Subject: Late Fee

Dear Sirs -

Today we received another UBR packet notifying us that our corporation would be administratively dissolved for non-payment, etc. and that there is a late fee.

I BEG TO DIFFER. I, personally, filed our UBR on line on 4/25/02 at 1:11PM. Our Document number is: P01000048728 (TireTown USA & Automotive, Inc.) and the tracking number on my DIVISIONS OF CORPORATIONS RECEIPT is 300005348473.

I used the "online payment system" and when I tried to follow-up to check the status before May 1, I always received the message from your servers that it was "in que" for processing.

If there was a problem, it was on your end and we do not feel that we should be penalized an additional $400 late fee for problems at your end.

Please advise how your offices would like to proceed.

We look forward to your reply ASAP to clear this dis-tasteful little matter up.

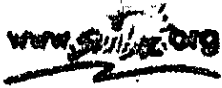

Sincerely,

Eloise P. Wexler
