Alternative Business Advice, Inc.
8551 NW 48th Street, Lauderhill, FL 33351

To Whom It May Concern:

I have recently received a Florida State Uniform Business Report (UBR) request in the mail. It states in this form that Alternative Business Advice, Inc is delinquent in payment of $150.00 and now owes $550.00.

As President of the organization, I assure the state that no prior notice of the UBR prescribed by the state has been received.

Now being aware that this is an annual charge, and can be taken care via electronic means, I will do so promptly on a yearly basis within the time frame requested.

Also, in the frequently asked questions section of the document, it states:

"This is the first notice I received, can the late fee be waived?"

The answer states yes with a written letter from an officer or director stating they did not receive the prior notice.

This is exactly what I have done.

I graciously request that the payment of $150.00 enclosed be accepted by the state for the UBR yearly fee and assure the State that ABA, Inc. will be diligent with submitting the form and payment in the future.

Respectfully,

Kurt Homfelt
President, ABA, Inc.
