TO whom it may CONCERN,

7-22-04

I've been in Business since 2001 sept. Everytime I receive something in the mail, from State Boards, Federal, or State, I immediately call my Account or my Attorney, for my Corporation and ask them what to do. They tell me and I make it my Business to send my response and or check as soon as possible.

I have never been late with any bill in my 3 years of Business.

I never received any type of notice in January or any month after, until I received a postcard, stating Dissolution of Corporation I was shocked. I called my Atty. and he told me to send the card to him. The next thing I received was this report, stating I owe 550<sup>00</sup>.

Talking with my Atty. he said there was a 400<sup>00</sup> late fee. I never received anything. I feel this fee should be waived. I

I spoke with a woman "Marquita" on 7-22-04. She advised me to write this letter and the fee would be waived.

I hope you will consider my letter in good faith.

My Check for 150<sup>00</sup> should put me up to date, for my Corporation.

Thank you

Sincerely,

Christine L. Waldron CEO
