To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to explain the circumstances in which I did not file this report in a timely manner. Please understand that this is my first year as a new Florida Corporation and I had no idea that this was to be renewed each year. I filed for an extension on my taxes during which time my accountant informed me that I am responsible for filing the paper work and paying this fee. I am sending the original $150.00 payment with hope that you will take my explanation to heart in these tough economic circumstances.

Sincerely,
Capt. Brien Spina

To Whom It May Concern:

I just discovered this report today that was due in May. I had an accident in March of this year in which I had spinal cord trauma and then ended up having a spinal cord operation. I was in a neck brace for several months and unable to work. Since we are a small business, I do not have anyone taking care of my office work. I am finally, slowly getting back to my office and to my horror, discovered this report.

I am sending this report and payment via overnight mail. I am sending the normal payment with a request for an exception on the penalty. If you need copies of my medical records I will be happy to send them to you.

Thank you in advance for your consideration of my request.

Sincerely,

Colette Guy
