Dear Sir/Madam

I am the wife of Sanjay Patel; my husband is currently in England on business. Having spoken to him, he confirms that he did complete and file a corporation business form, and together with a cheque (#1060), was mailed to your department on 4th April 2002. I have checked with our bank, this cheque has not been cashed. We did not receive the 2nd UBR notice.

He also included a letter explaining that our current address (at the time) was 617 Willner Circle Sanford Florida 32771, and with effect from 1st June 2002, the new mailing address for Shivrup & Om inc would be 724 Arbor Lakes Circle, Sanford, Florida 32771. At the end of May I wrote to you (and other Governmental organizations) informing of a change of address for Shivrup & Om inc, as I had received various communications from the other department I assumed your department would have also received my letter, I apologies that you did not receive this letter.

Due to various delays, our business started construction in October 2002, and will not be operational until Jan 2003.

As advised by your associate, I am enclosing with this application a fee of $150.00. I hope our corporation will be returned to "active" status and please accept my apologies for this inconvenience and hope you will waive the reinstatement fee.

Thanking you for your corporation and appreciate your patience in this matter.
