Dear Sir or Madam:

Please see attached letter which I received concerning the above named corporation. I spoke by telephone with Eula Peterson on June 2, 2003 and was advised to write this letter.

I did not receive the UBR form in the mail from you either last year or this year and have had to pull it off the internet both years in order to file the return. I never received a rejection letter from you in 2002 requesting more money. My check for $150 sent with my UBR form in 2002 was received and I have my cancelled check.

Please find attached my check # 3565 in the amount of $150 and the 2003 UBR form to keep this corporation active.

Please waive the $600 balance on this account due to the situation outlined above. Please advise if I must do anything further to correct this matter. Your help will be very much appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Julia H. Williams
