I am writing with regard to the enclosed UBR forms which had been returned due to the need for reinstatement of the above entities. Having spoken to someone in your office, I am resubmitting these documents along with the fee of $308.75 for each (2 checks) representing 2 years filing and a Certificate of Status for each.

Non-filing of this report had been completely inadvertent on the part of the entities. The address used at incorporation was a temporary location. In fact the entities had relocated two times in the first year of operation until finally securing and settling into their now permanent (new) location. They never received the initial renewal forms or any subsequent notices that may have been sent by the state to the last known address.

Please therefore process the enclosed UBR's accepting the fees therewith and return the requested certificates at your earliest convenience. I have enclosed a post paid return envelope to facilitate the matter. Thank you for your assistance.

Very truly yours,

Jeffrey A. Farkas, Esq.
