Re: Bionda Enterprises, Inc. / Doc. # P01000054838

Dear Representative:

Enclosed is the Application for Reinstatement executed by the above-referenced corporation with a check to cover the $150 filing fee. We respectfully request abatement of the $600 penalty for late filing as outlined in your fee schedule.

The Company is 100% owned by a single individual and was originally established in June of 2001. The nature of the owners business is that of a fashion model, which causes her to travel quite frequently. As a result, she has always been attentive to administrative matters concerning her business and tax responsibilities and now with the existence of the corporation, its filing requirements. I have been her accountant for the past four years and I can attest to this fact. She has indicated that she never received the annual report forms to file. Now, being aware of what needs to be done and by when, she will file timely in the future. Given that this is the Company's first year of business, it would not serve the interests of fair and equitable corporate administration to impose the penalty in this instance.

Should you require any additional information or need clarification on any of the above, please feel free to call me. Thank you in advance for your prompt consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,

MICHAEL V. FINUCCIO, P.A.
