Dear Sir/Madam,

I recently found out that our company is no longer listed as active by the State of Florida Division of Corporations. I quickly called our former attorney group of Spiegel and Ultrera to see what the problem may have been. They said I should receive something in the mail in regard to this. I never heard back from them, which in part, is a big reason why they no longer represent us. Upon doing some extra due diligence, I also found out that the reason that I have not received anything is because our corporate address is incorrect. Our current address (as shown above) is 11238 NW 56 Street, Miami, Florida 33178. You still have our address as being 8306 Mills Drive. We have not used this address in well over a year and a half. Furthermore, we requested that it be changed in writing, but it still appears the same.

Enclosed, please find the completed application for reinstatement. I have also enclosed the fee for $150.00. We have some work pending in Miami-Dade and I would really love to pick up the contract. However, for as long as we are in an "inactive" status, we cannot do anything. Please do not hold us responsible for errors that were out of our control.

Thank you in advance for all your help.

Sincerely,

George Perez
