To whom it may concern:

On approximately July 1, 2004 I received a notice "to dissolve" in the mail asking for my annual report. As suggested by the card, I went to the website to find out more information and realized that according to the site I am late in my filing. However, I had not received a prior notification card. On the website it had a box to mark if this was the first notice received, so I checked. I then proceeded to have my accountant prepare the appropriate documentation. He did so and I have enclosed the proper paperwork, however noted that I owe $550. I have enclosed the original amount of $150, following the instructions from your website stating that this was the first notification I have received. If I have followed instructions incorrectly, please notify me directly. I do not wish to have this corporation dissolved due to lack of notification or inaccurate payment.

Sincerely,

Alie Gattis
