RE: Uniform Business Report
Soapy's Coin Laundry, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

Enclosed is a copy of the Uniform Business Report that I got off the internet and a check in the amount of $150.00, which I was told to send after I had called your phone number to inquire about my report that I had never received.

My business opened at the end of April. I don't know what address the form may have been sent to, but I have never received anything, so they told me to get it off the website.

If it was sent to the business address prior to April 22, 2002, the business was not open yet and still under construction. I hate to think that I would have to pay any late fees for something I would have paid promptly had I received the form.

Thank you for your thoughtful consideration and understanding, and I hope we can get this straightened fairly.

Sincerely,

Glen Schwanebeck
