Date: October 16, 2002

Dear sir madam:

This letter is to apologize sincerely to you for not sending our uniform business report on time.

The reason why it wasn't sent on time is due to the fact that we are new in business, and did not receive the required orientation about filing the different types of documents and with the different governmental institutions until we meet someone who is really putting us on track. Apart from that we did not receive the Uniform Business Report needed to be filed.

Enclosed find Uniform Business Report for the year 2002 and a check for the amount of $150.00 (One hundred fifty dollars and 00/100)

Again we apologize and plead for you to waive the penalties incurred of will be incurred due to this misunderstanding or mismanagement of documents.

We do hope that this will not create a heavy burden on you and your staff.

Sincerely

Max Francois, President
