Dear Sirs,

On May 24, 2002, I realized I had not received any of the UBR's for reporting of 2002. I called your representative at the 800 telephone number, told her I have not received the forms and was concerned because they are due June 1, 2002. She then informed me they were due May 1st. I should have gotten her name, she was extremely polite and helpful. She walked me through downloading the forms in order to rush them through, and where to overnight them to you.

In completing the forms, I noted the mailing address is on Douglas Ave., Altamonte Springs, FL. We have moved and I obviously did not notify you of the change. Please correct the Mailing address as shown on the forms. Also, your representative informed me we can now file online. Please make whatever changes needed for this service.

Lastly, but not least of all, I respectfully plea that you forgive or abate the penalties on the above reports. I foolishly used the forms as the reminder to file, and not receiving them, I thought they were due on June 1st.

Awaiting your reply, I remain,

Sincerely,

Doris O. Dixon
