To Whom It May Concern:

Just a couple of days ago I talked to Mr. Sean Toner of your office.

I explained to him why dues of 2004 profit corporation annual report were not received.

My office manager did not mail checks to different places during his time of work. He is since gone from my office.

The check number with which your dues were paid was #1454 – which was never cashed. Subsequently that check was cancelled along with many other non-cashed checks.

Please accept my apology for this late payment. Mr. Toner agreed that I pay $150.00

I am sending the counter portion of this check that was either not used or lost. The new check that I am writing belongs to the same bank account. This is for the purpose if you wanted to launch an inquiry.

I appreciate your understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

Zakiuddin Ahmed
