To Whom It May Concern:

On July 9, 2003 I received notification that the UBR for my company had not been filed. This was my first notification of the need to file. My business and home addresses had recently been changed and I feel that I may not have received any previous notice because of this. I immediately submitted my $150.00 fee and a letter stating that this had been my first notice, however, today, July 21, 2003, I received another letter stating that my report cannot be filed without the $400 late fee. I contacted your office and was informed that the letter sent with my report had been lost and that I was required to resubmit the letter and report. Please submit my report at this time and contact me if there are any further questions. My document # is P01000061228. Thank you for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Laura L. Coyle, President
Coyle Health & Fitness Inc.
