Re: Uniform Business Report

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter in concern that my first application and check (#1703) were not received and posted. The First report was mailed August 17, 2003. I received a second application stating I was late and would have to pay the late fee. I called your department last week (10/80 and was told to send in the application with a letter stating the above. Please use this application and disregard the above check and application. Please also note the changes on the application. These changes were reported last year and were not updated.

Any questions please call me at 352-494-1687.

Thank you,
Monty Williams
