RE: P01000063568

To Whom It May Concern:

I am in receipt of a 2002 Uniform Business Report Package. When I brought this package to my accountant she informed me that I should have filed this report in January when I received the original mailing. However, I never received the first mailing.

I have been very conscientious about filing all my returns on time and now, as we read this filing package, I have been assessed an additional $400 for the delay, which must have been caused by the U.S. Postal System.

Based on these circumstances, I would appreciate receiving leniency on the assessment of the $400 penalty. I have enclosed an updated report and the necessary $150 filing fee.

Thank you for your consideration. I can be reached at the number above if you should have further questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "J. Sundin", written over a faint, illegible typed name.

John A. Sundin
Director
