Re: Sarah Engel, Inc.

Dear Sir/Madam:

This letter will confirm my telephone conversation with your office on September 2, 2004, in which I explained to you that the Annual Report had never been sent to me. On September 2, 2004 you said you would mail me the Annual Report Application so that I could submit my payment. Please be advised that I received the report Monday 13, 2004, (there must have been a delay because of the Hurricane). As per my telephone conversation with your office this morning, enclosed please find the payment of my corporation in the amount that you instructed me to send and this letter explaining the situation that occurred.

I thank you in advance for your time.

Sincerely,

GERALD T. ENGEL
