To whom it may concern:

I am writing you this letter for my Uniform Business Report. I sent the UBR to the Department of State, but it was returned because I only had 6 digits of the FEIN number. I wrote the remaining three numbers and sent the packet back and I also made copies of the Application. After checking on the computer I saw that my corporation was not active. I then called the Department of State and an agent told me to send the copy back with my original signature. I am enclosing you this copy with my original signature - and the date on which I spoke to the agent and signed also.

Yours Truly
Francis E. ...
