ARTICLE VIII

No director or officer of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer; provided, however, that the foregoing clause shall not apply to any liability of a director or officer (I) for any breach of the director's or officer's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (II) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve international misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or (III) for any transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit. Nothing contained in these Articles of Incorporation shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advancement of attorney fees and expenses to any person who is or was an officer or director of the Corporation.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity
