To Whom It May Concern:

I Ziomara Jackson Director of this Corporation did not receive the document that was supposed to have been sent to me, which I did not received it in the mail. This was the only application that I have received. When I received this application I took to my accountant and she asked me if I received this document in January, which I did not. Matrix stated to me, that she does not receive hers over the mail nor she receives any notification for any of her clients. She doesn't now why she does not receive any notification for her and her clients. She also stated that file hers over the web which I no nothing about filling over the web. When I send it in last year I took it to her and the address was changed from 2138 NE 8th Street Gainesville Florida 32609 To 125 NW 23rd Avenue Suite #1 Gainesville Florida 32609 which this is our place of business and I did not see the corrections at all. It's not that I Failed to send it in someone failed to send it to me. I spoke to someone in your office by the name of Mr. Ladell who informed me to send a letter, the application and $150.00 plus 8.75 for my certificate for the total of $ 158.75.and see what they say about my situation. I don't feel that our company should be penalized for not complying because of not receiving the necessary forms to get it done.

Sincerely,

Ziomara V. Jackson
