RE: UBR Inquiry

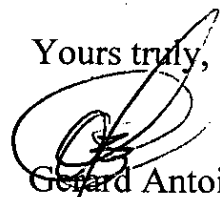

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in regards to my conversation with a representative at the UBR Bureau. Our offices received the Uniform Business Report Form on July 6, 2002 after being inadvertently mailed to an incorrect address.

We realize that the deadline for the submission of the application and fee was on May 1, 2002, however because of our relocation since September 2001, we did not receive the materials in time. We also had no knowledge that such a form was required. Therefore, as instructed by the aforementioned representative, who told us to send a check for $150.00 and simply explain the situation with a cover letter, please find said check and letter enclosed.

Thank you for your cooperation and attention to this matter.

Yours truly,

Gerard Antoine
