RE: A Day at a Time Counseling Centers, Inc.

Dear Sir/Madame,

Attached please find previous correspondence mailed in October, 2003 requesting reinstatement and abatement of penalties due to relocation.

My client called me last week and indicated his check never cleared. I called your office and was told that they have no record of receiving the reinstatement request. Another copy of the 2003 uniform business report has been enclosed.

As indicated in the letter, we are requesting that any late filing penalties be abated due to a relocation by my client.

Your cooperation and assistance in this matter is greatly appreciated. If you have any questions or require additional assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jim Dyce

RE: A Day at a Time Counseling Centers, Inc.

Dear Sir/Madame,

My client, A Day at A Time Counseling Centers, Inc. recently went online to verify its corporate status for a vendor and discovered that there address information was incorrect and that the corporate fees for 2003 were not paid.

My client relocated to the address noted below in late 2002.

109 River Chase Drive
Orlando, Fl 32807

We have downloaded a blank form from the internet, completed it and attached it to this letter.

My client never received the uniform business report as it appears that the post office failed to forward the notice to his new address.

My client has always filed their report timely in the past and is very upset that he failed to file timely this year. As he did not receive the report, he was unaware that it was due. He only received the late notice as the current tenant forwarded it to him.

As my client has always complied in the past, did not receive the notice due to relocation, we are hereby requesting that the attached report be accepted as filed timely.

Your cooperation and assistance in this matter is greatly appreciated. If you have any questions or require additional assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jim Dyce
